"FOUND DEAD IN THE STREET."

The labor is over and done,
The sun has gone down in the west;
The birds are asleep, every one,
And the world has gone to its rest—
Sleepers on beds of down,
'Neath cover of silk and gold!
Soft, as on roses new-blown
Slept the great monarch of old!
Sleepers on mother's breast,
Sleepers happy and warm,
Cosy as birds in their nest,
With never a thought of harm!
Sleepers in garrets high,
'Neath coverlet ragged and old;
And one little sleeper all under the sky,
Out in the night and cold!
Alone in the wide, wide world,
Christless, motherless he;
Begging or stealing to live, and whirled
Like a waif on an angry sea.

The daisy looks up from the grass,
Fresh from the fingers of Night,
To welcome the birds as they pass,
And drink in fresh rivers of light.
Sleepers on mother's breast,
Waken to summer and mirth;
But one little sleeper has gone to his rest,
Never to waken on earth—
Dead—found dead in the street,
All forsaken and lorn;
Damp from head to the feet,
With the dews of the sweet May morn!

Dead—for the want of a crust!
Dead—in the cold night-air!
Dead—and under the dust,
Without even a word of prayer;
In the heart of the wealthiest city
In this most Christian land,
Without even a word of pity,
Or the touch of a kindly hand!

THE ROMAN SENTINEL.

There was nothing in Pompeii that invested it with a deeper interest to me than the spot where a soldier of old Rome displayed a most heroic fidelity. That fatal day on which Vesuvius, at whose feet the city stood, burst out into an eruption which shook the earth, poured torrents of lava from its riven sides, and discharged, amidst the noise of a hundred thunders, such clouds of ashes as filled the air, produced a darkness deeper than midnight and struck such terror into all hearts that men thought not only that the end of the world had come and all must die, but the gods themselves were expiring—on that night a sentinel kept watch by the gate which looked to the burning mountain. Amidst unimaginable confusion, and shrieks of terror, mingled with the roar of the volcano, and cries of the mothers who had lost their children in the darkness, the inhabitants fled the fatal town, while falling ashes, loading the darkened air, and penetrating every place, rose in the streets till they covered the house-roofs, nor left a vestige of the city but a vast silent mound, beneath which it lay unknown, dead, and buried, for nearly one thousand seven hundred years.

Amidst this terrible disorder the sentinel at the gate had been forgotten; and as Rome required her sentinel, happen what might, to hold his post till relieved by the guard or set at liberty by the officers, he had to choose between death and dishonor. Pattern of fidelity, he stood at his post. Slowly but surely the ashes rise on his manly form; now they reach his breast; and now covering his lips, they choke his breathing. He also was "faithful unto death." After seventeen centuries, they found his skeleton standing erect on the marble niche, clad in its rusty armor—the helmet on his empty skull, and his bony fingers still closed upon his spear. And next almost to the interest I felt in placing myself on the spot where Paul true to his colors when all men deserted him, plead before the Roman tyrant, was the interterest I felt in the niche by the city gate where they found the skeleton of one who, in his fidelity to the cause of Cæsar, sets us an example of the faithfulness to the cause of Christ—an example it were for the honor of their master that all his sevants followed.—Dr. Guthrie.

IN Baltimore, a little girl returning from school, fell on the pavement and drove a long piece of slate pencil into her right eye. The pencil has been extracted by a physician, but a fatal inflammation of the brain is indicated.

AN ACT

To provide for the collection of State, county, poor and military taxes in the county of Bedford.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That hereafter it shall be the duty of the county commissioners of Bedford county, in each and every year, immediately after the assessment of taxes for State, county, poor and military purposes, shall have been completed in the manner prescribed by law, to cause their clerk to make fair duplicates thereof, in convenient form, and deliver the same to the county treasurer, on or before the first day of May, annually, together with a certificate under their hands respectively, and attested by their clerk, certifying that the taxes charged in said duplicates, have been duly assessed according to law.

Section 2. That it shall be the duty of the county treasurer of said county, after he shall receive the duplicates of assessment as hereinbefore provided, to give at least thirty days notice, by weekly publication in two newspapers published in said county, and by at least six printed handbills to be put up in the most public places, in each borough and township, of the time and place where the said treasurer will attend for the purpose of receiving State, county, poor and military taxes. previous to the twenty-eighth day of July, in each and every year, and he shall attend for that purpose, one day in each township and borough, containing less than four hundred taxables, and two days in each township having more than that number of taxables, and he shall give receipts for taxes in all cases, when required by the persons paying the same.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of said treasurer, in case any State, county, poor, or military taxes, assessed in any township, ward, or borough, in said county, shall remain unpaid for a period of twenty days after the first day of August, in each and every year, to make out a schedule of all such unpaid taxes, with the names of the persons to whom the same are charged, and deliver the said schedule to one of the justices of the peace in said township, borough, or ward, where such taxes remain unpaid, and it shall be the duty of the justice to whom the said schedule shall be delivered, as aforesaid, to immediately deliver a written or printed notice to every person named in said schedule, living in township, borough, or ward, or leave the same at their residence, and to notify by mail all non-residents that he has received from the county treasurer, the schedula of unpaid taxes, and that if the same be not paid by the first of December following, he will issue execution for the collection of the same, and for the service of all such notices the said justice shall be allowed ten cents, each, to be paid by the delinquent tax-payer.

Section 4. Should any person, or persons, after having been duly notified, as aforesaid, neglect or refuse to pay the said taxes, then it shall be the duty of the said justice, and he is hereby authorized and required, to add five per centum to the amount thereof, and to issue execution against the delinquent for the collection of the same, with costs, which execution shall be placed by the justice in the hands of any constable in said county, whose duty it shall be to collect the same, as other debts are now collected by law, and pay the amount so collected to the said justice, within thirty days from the date of the execution; Provided, There shall be no exemption of goods from execution, except such as is allowed by the provisions of the general laws of this Commonwealth for the collection of taxes, and that the justice and constable shall be entitled to the same fees as for like services in other cases.

Section 5. All persons in said county, who shall, on or before the twenty-eighth day of July, aforesaid, pay to the said treasurer the amount of his or her taxes, shall be entitled to a deduction of five per centum thereof in lieu of all deductions heretofore allowed by law, and said treasurer shall keep his office in the county seat and open at all reasonable hours for the receipt of taxes, each and every year, from the said first day of May, until the twentieth day of August.

Section 6. When said taxes shall remain unpaid until the first day of December following, and there is no property in the district belonging to non residents, or to be found in the posession of those occupying the premises, it shall be the duty of the justice to certify the same to the county treasurer, who shall make out a certificate of such unpaid taxes, with the addition of five per centum, and cause the same to be entered of record in the prothonotary's office of such county, which shall be a lien against said property, until paid, with costs of entry, and if said taxes be not paid within sixty days after entry, as aforesaid, said treasurer may issue execution thereon and collect the amounts due, with costs in like manner as judgments in the courts of common pleas are collectable; except that the taxes on unseated lands shall be collected as heretofore.

Section 7. That upon the delivery by the county treasurer of the schedule of unpaid taxes to any justice of the peace, he shall charge such justice with the whole amount of unpaid taxes contained in said schedule, in a book to be provided for that purpose, which shall be opened for the inspection of the county commissioners and auditors, and the said justice shall pay over all such taxes and additions to the treasurer on or before the thirtieth day of December following, and the said justice and his securities shall only be discharged from the liabilities of this act by his paying over the amount of all such taxes, after deducting such exonerations as may be allowed by the commissioners for mistakes, indigent persons, and the amount that cannot be collected by execution from non-residents, together with two per centum which shall be allowed said justice, on all moneys collected and paid over to the treasurer aforesaid.

Section 8. That in all these cases where the constable of any township, ward, or borough, shall neglect or refuse to perform the duties by this act enjoined, or shall fail to qualify or give security as provided by law, on or before the third Monday of September, in each year, the county commissioners of said county, are hereby authorized to appoint a collector in his stead, who shall, on giving security and becoming qualified as required of constables, proceed with like power and authority to perform the duties of constables as required by this act.

Section 9. That if any treasurer, justice of the peace, constable, or collector shall fail to perform any of the duties required of them by the provisions of this act, he or they shall, upon conviction, before any court, forfeit and pay a fine not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, at the discretion of the said court, which shall be recovered in the name of the commonwealth at the instance of the treasurer, or commissioners of said county, who shall collect the same as other debts of like amount are now collected by law, which said fines shall be paid into the treasury, for the use of the county.

Section 10. That in lieu of the percentage now received by the treasurer for State tax by him paid into the State Treasury, he shall hereafter be entitled to deduct and retain out of the gross amounts of moneys collected and received by him for the use of the Commonwealth, under the provisions of this act, six per centum on the amount accounted for and paid over by him to the State Treasurer, four per centum of which shall be paid by him to the credit of said county.

Section 11. That the constables and collectors receiving taxes under the provisions of this act, without resorting to levy and sale of goods, shall be entitled to deduct from the amount so received the sum of five per centum on the amount thereof as their compensation for such collection.

Section 12. That the assesors of the different wards, townships, and boroughs, in said county, in making the extra assessment required by law, shall certify the name of the person applying to be assessed, with the amount of tax imposed, both for State and county purposes, to the constables or collectors discharging their duties under the provisions of this act, and the said constables or collectors shall receive and receipt for all such taxes, which receipt shall be as valid as receipts heretofore given by collectors in like cases.

Section 13. That it shall be the duty of the court of quarter sessions in and for the said county of Bedford, before they shall appoint constables, to require from them a bond in the name of the commonwealth, in such sum and with such sureties as shall be approved by the said court, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties imposed upon such constables by this act, and for the payment to the county treasurer of the full amount of State, county poor and military taxes contained in any warrant and schedule which shall be delivered to them, or any of them, by the county treasurer of said county, after deducting exonerations, within four months from and after the date of the delivery of any such warrant, as aforesaid.

Section 14. That so much of any law as requires the commissioners of said county of Bedford, to appoint collectors of State, county, poor and military taxes, and so much of any law as is hereby altered or supplied, is hereby repealed, so far as relates to the county of Bedford.

SETTING A GOOD EXAMPLE.—We are glad to notice that the New York Times has the decency to give place to the following paragraph in its editorial colums:

The single murder of Mr. Ashburn in Georgia has called out the prompt and stern application of military force. In the vicinity of Selma, Ala., five white men, once of the rebel army, have been murdered and no arrests made. Has impartial justice anything to do with the pacification of a disturbed land, or is impartial suffrage supposed to be all sufficient?

The Times sets a good example to its Radical cotemporaries by publishing the above, but it is not likely that many of them will follow it. They prefer to indulge in laudation of the negroes and wholesale denunciation of the white population of the South.

THE song "Tramp, tramp, tramp," was composed by a prisoner confined in the Iowa Penitentiary, and was first written on the walls of his cell with charcoal. It has netted the publishers thousands of dollars, but not a cent to the writer.

CURTIS AND BUTLER.

In reading Curtis's magnificent speech for the defense one cannot help contrasting it with Butler's opinion for the prosecution. The two men, and their speeches, are types of the two sides of the case. Butler is impudent, fierce, exultant over an easy (anticipated) victory. Curtis is polite, calm, confident in the impregnable strength of his position, and in the justice of the Senate. Butler argues, where he sha a foundation for argument, ably and effectively; beyond that he quibbles and asserts. Curtis keeps to the bounds of strict dialectics; his reasoning is like a chain, in which there are no weak links, leading from certain premises to certain conclusions. Butler talks like a feed lawyer, at his favorite pursuit of making the worse appear the better cause. Curtis talks like a judge who has examined the whole question judicially, and believes upon his soul in what he says. Butler treats the Senate as if it were a Cooper Institute audience, whom he was trying to bully, cajole, and flatter to his way of thinking. He appeals to the prejudices, the partisan feelings, the seeming interests of his hearers; never to their wisdom, their equity, their magnanimity. Curtis addresses the Senate in their high and true character of court. He trusts to their intelligence, their justice, their generosity, even. He cannot bring himself to think that a body of men, representing as they are supposed to do, so much of all that is wisest and best in the land, can fail to follow his lofty line of argument, and to be influenced by considerations directed solely to their minds and consciences. He speaks to them as if they were his peers intellectually—which is a compliment to the Senate. Butler harangues them as if they were no better than himself—which is an insult to the Senate. Curtis reasons at the Senate from his level; and Butler makes a stump speech at them from his level; and there is just the difference between the two men and their speeches.

As the Senators decide upon the question of impeachment, so will they take their place in history upon the low plain with Butler or upon the high table land with Curtis.—N. Y. Jour. Com.

WHAT THE RANK AND FILE OF THE ARMY THINK.

Forney's Press has been thrown into spasms again. It says the spirit of Andrew Johnson is breaking out among the rank and file of the regular army. It seems that the private soldiers at Carlisle Barracks had a meeting the other day, at which the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, The present great crisis in the affairs of our Government seems to demand the attention and earnest consideration of all good citizens, and for obvious reasons, especially of the citizen soldiers of the Republic, and in order by our unanimity ever to indicate to the world something of the sentiments of the rank and file of the army, be it

Resolved, That the first great duty of an American soldier is to support the Constitution of the United States against all its enemies and opposers whomsoever.

Resolved, That we recognize in its fullest signification the fact that the constitutionally elected President of the United States is the Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, and the person to whom our first and paramount allegiance is due.

The Press scents the odor of lurking treason in these really patriotic and soldier-like resolutions. We see in them evidence of a love of country and a disposition to act as all American soldiers should be expected to do. Is it not true that "the first great duty of an American soldier is to support the Constitution of the United States against all its enemies and opposers whomsoever?" Is it not also true that "the constitutionally elected President of the United States is the Commander-in-Chief of the Army and the Navy, and the person to whom their first and paramount allegiance is due?" Until Congress attempted to usurp all the powers of the Executive, no man in the country would have doubted the patriotism of the excellent resolutions adopted by the soldiers at Carlisle.

But we do not wonder that the Press is agitated over this matter. The Radical leaders have been acting as if they were counting without their host in this matter. Should a conflict occur in this country the rank and file of the regular army would refuse to sustain tha Radical usurpers and traitors who seem to be determined to support themselves in power by the use of military force. The muskets of these very men would be turned against those who would be found marshaled under the lead of Stevens and Sumner. This may be an ugly fact for the Radicals to recognize, but they have only to advance a little further in their revolutionary designs to test the truth of what we say. They might find the negro regiments ready to sustain them, but not those composed of white men. —Lancaster Intelligencer.

A SPY IN CAMP.—A case is noted in an exchange paper, of a lady agent going round and selling ladie's "corsets," fitting them at remarkable low prices. The cheapness of the work in some cases, and the decided partiality shown some of the more beautiful, aroused suspicion, and on the lady's being arrested she was found to be a young man in disguise—fitting and selling just for the fun of the thing. He says he has passed through Maryland, Delaware and Pennsylvania, and fitted corsets to several thousand young ladies.

SOMETHING FOR OUR LADY READERS.—There is a good deal of speculation and some curiosity in regard to the new spring bonnets, which a sight of them will hardly repay. There is absolutely very little about them that is new. The shapes are the same as last year, varied a little in the making and the trimming. They are as small as ever, and incline decidedly to the narrow flaring or standing brim, with a crown, but no cape. The latter is replaced by a lace fall, or mantille, which is crossed in front, and forms second strings over ties made of narrow ribbon.

The novelty, or one of them, is the Calotte. This is made with a soft crown and a small brim which retreats at the sides, but is verys lightly rolled. A scarf of lace or frosted tulle finishes it at the back and forms second strings.

The "Metternich" has a raised brim and straight crown, split and caught back, forming a kind of a revers.

The "Montpensier" has a high crown with the brim standing up; and the "Columbia," named after some young American ladies who have been the the fashion in Paris this winter, has a double brim, fan shaped, which is graceful upon some as it is unbecoming to others.

The "Grand Duchesse" is a round hat, turned up on one side, and trimmed with a wide scarf of lace, one end of which is left hanging at the back.

The "Marie Antoinette" has a higher crown, and a wider, somewhat rolling brim. It may be trimmed with blue ribbon or roses, or with a wreath, one end of which forms a cordon, which descends upon the shoulders.

Very distinguished bonnets are of black lace, frosted and trimmed with steel, or of black lace trimmed with natural grasses; and very simple yet pretty straw bonnets are trimmed with several rows of narrow velvet dotted with cut steel or fire gilt buttons, very small, full velvet rosettes, and a lace mantille the color of the velvet.

Colored blondes and laces are among the novelties in trimming, and largely used. A pretty effect is also produced by grey tulle, dotted with steel, over grey crape. The ornaments are grey velvet leaves frosted with steel.

NEWS FROM DR. LIVINGSTONE, THE AFRICAN EXPLORER.—The United States Consul at Zanzibar, under date of Nov. 10, 1867, writing to the Secretary of State, says:

About a month ago a caravan arrived at the port of Bugamoya, on the coast of Africa, opposite this place, and one of the leaders thereof reported that while on their way, they met a European traveler, who was accompanied by twelve native attendants, and who wrote letters to her and delivered them to one of the members of the caravan, who from some cause, remained behind, keeping the letter with him. After the reports of the different members of the caravan, her Majesty's Consul felt perfectly satisfied that the traveler in question could be none other than the great explorer, Dr. Livingstone, the report of whose death was communicated to the department under date of December 9, 1868, from this consulate. An influential Arab who arrived from Quillo yesterday, informed me that while there he conversed with the chief of one of the tribes of the interior, who informed him that he had met Dr. Livingstone, whom he knew about eighteen months ago. There seems, therefore, to be room for hope that the reports of his death brought by the probable deserters from his party, are false, and it is the opinion of all Europeans here that the Doctor is still living.

FEMALE GAMBLERS.—The Washington Chronicle, of Sunday last, is responsible for the following announcement regarding one of the features of Washington Society:

"It may appear to be a slightly sensational statement, but it is none the less true, that there are two fasionable gambling houses, both within half a dozen squares of the treasury building, which are exclusively for the use of ladies. One and perhaps the best furnished and most largely frequented, is situated on Fourteenth street, while the other is in the first ward, but a few squares distant. At these places, at nearly all hours of the day, may be found richly dressed ladies, connected with families whose standing is high in the community, earnestly engaged in faro, and staking their money with an abandon that would excite surprise. The sterner sex is rigidly excluded, and the players feel themselves secure from the intrusion of watchful fathers or angry husbands, while they, at the same time place firm reliance on the silence of their fair companions, who, we will say, are quite select and respectable, as the judgment of the crafty proprietresses enables them to perceive that the indiscriminate admission of visitors would be injurious to their interests.

TO DESTROY THE CUT WORM.—The Pratical Farmer says an excellent plan to keep off the cut worm from corn, is to drop about a table-spoonful of coarse salt on the top of the hill soon after planting. This is carried down by the rains, and acts as a fertilizer, besides killing the cut worm.

Salt is peculiarly obnoxious to this class of insects, and perhaps all classes. Instead of putting the salt on the hill, some farmers spread about 8 bushels to the acre broadcast, upon their cornfields after plowing in and before harrowing. This is a very profitable application. Farmers should bear these facts in mind when they plant corn in the coming spring.

MEN of the noblest disposition think themselves happiest when others share their happiness with them.

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,

HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE,

of Fayette County.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL,

GEN. WELLINGTON H. ENT,

of Columbia County.

Campaign Gazette!

REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, Civil Liberty and Constitutional Rights!

NO STANDING ARMY!
NO FREEDMEN'S BUREAU!
NO NEGRO STATES!

White Men Must Rule America!

"Light, more light!" is the startling cry of the honest people groping in the darkness of Radicalism. "Light, more light!" shouts the groaning taxpayer, bending under the load which a Radical Congress has heaped upon him. "Light, more light!" is the pleading cry that comes to us from those who earnestly seek a remedy for the disease that is tugging at the vitals of the nation. Look and ye shall see! Read and ye shall know! The BEDFORD GAZETTE, for the Presidential Campaign, will be a complete compendium of political news, speeches, documents and every thing that pertains to a political canvass in the columns of a weekly newspaper. It will be published from the first day of June until the seventh of November, next, at the following low terms, cash in advance:

One copy,	$ .75
Ten copies,	6.00
Twenty copies,	11.00
Fifty copies,	25.00

THE "WORLD" AND "AGE."

We will also furnish the GAZETTE and New York Weekly World, or Philadelphia Weekly Age, for the campaign, at the following rates:

1 copy GAZETTE, and	1 of World, or	Age,	$ 1.75
10 copies	do	and 10	do	do	15.00
20 do	do	and 20	do	do	28.00
50 do	do	and 50	do	do	65.00

☞ Invariably, cash in advance.

Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper into the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

DEMOCRATIC MEETING!

The Democrats of Bedford county, and all who intend acting with them, all who are in favor of A CHANGE, and who are opposed to forcing Negro Suffrage upon an unwilling people, at the point of the bayonet, are requested to assemble at the Court House, in Bedford, on MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 27th, for the purpose of taking into consideration the state of the country.

Several speeches will be made on the occasion.

Come and hear! think! Reflect! Make up your judgment carefully and honestly, and then act accordingly.

GEO. MARDORFF,
Ch'n Dem. Co. Com.

W. C. SCHAEFFER, Sec'y.

THE Republicans of Bedford county are informed by the Bedford Inquirer that "Thaddeus Stevens has written a letter in which he heartily endorses General Grant for the Presidency." We have no doubt of it. Grant is a mere "nose of wax," and Stevens knows that he and his fellow Radicals can mould him as they please. Do you want Thad. Stevens, or Charles Sumner, or Fred. Douglass, for President? If so, vote for Useless Grant.

HENRY WILSON has written a letter saying that he has never seen Grant take a drink. The Sultan of Turkey and the Tycoon of Japan might add their testimony to that of Senator Wilson, in the same behalf.

THE IMPEACHMENT HUMBUG.

The counsel for President Johnson, have delivered some crushing blows to the conspiracy to depose the lawful Executive of the country. We say conspiracy, for if there were no conspiracy on the part of the Radical leaders, there would be nothing to crush. The charges against the President are merely a pretext upon which the conspirators intend to remove Mr. Johnson. There is nothing in them that could not have been truthfully alleged against a half dozen former Presidents, among them John Adams, Andrew Jackson and James Buchanan. These removed Cabinet officers, just as Mr. Johnson attempted to remove Stanton. These made speeches to public audiences, just as did Mr. Johnson. In the exercise of executive power, Andrew Jackson went far beyond the limit which bounds the action of the present Executive. The whole country rang with denunciations of "the one man power" represented in the administration of "Old Hickory." But, he was not impeached, simply because there was some purity and little recklessness in the character of his opponents. Why, then, is Andrew Johnson threatened with removal? Andrew Johnson, who has not attempted to use a tithe of the authority actually exerted by Andrew Jackson? Because, first, the conspirators are corrupt and reckless, caring nothing for the example they set and aiming only to secure the patronage of the government; secondly, because the lethargy of the people is counted on as insuring the safety and success of the conspiracy. But, as we said before, Butler, Bingham & Co., are getting some hard knocks. The counsel for President Johnson, are showing, by competent proofs, that the President acted lawfully and constitutionally in his attempt to remove Stanton, that he desired to get rid of this odious office-holder by peaceful means, and not by force, that he merely directed General Thomas, as Adjutant General of the Army, to take charge of the War Office, until he could send to the Senate an appointment of a successor to Stanton, that he did not conspire with Gen. Thomas, or anybody else, to seize the War Department, by force of arms, that he has not "violated the Constitution," (!!!) or even the Tenure of Office Law, and that it was his intention to compel Stanton to test his right to remain in the War Office, in the Courts, and thus have the whole difficulty settled by a judicial decision. These things the counsel for the President, have established, by record evidence, and by the testimony of Gen. Sherman, Gen. Thomas, W. S. Cox, Esq., R. T. Merrick, Esq., and other witnesses, and they show, most conclusively, that there is nothing whatsoever in the charges against the President, and that the scheme of Butler, Bingham & Co., is nothing more and nothing less than a bold, though crafty, conspiracy to depose the President, under cover of impeachment for "high crimes and misdemeanors!"

GEN. SHERMAN.

The hero of the "march to the sea," appeared, the other day, before the "High Court of Impeachment," as a witness for President Johnson. Bottled Butler made furious opposition to the admission of his testimony and for a while succeeded in excluding it. He knew how crushing it would be to the "case" of the Managers, and ranted and roared when the Senate finally decided to admit it, which they did by a small majority. Gen. Sherman testified that the President offered him the War Department, and that when he (Sherman) suggested that Stanton might refuse to leave the office, the President, so far from contemplating the use of force, replied that he knew Stanton to be a coward and that he would not resist. Gen. Sherman, also, testified that the President declared to him, that the affairs of the War Department could not be administered in the interests of the army and the country, so long as Stanton continued at its head, and that his only desire in getting him (Stanton) out of the place, was to get some one into it in whom he could repose confidence, and whom he could take into the councils of his Cabinet. Such testimony, from such a source, could not fail to convince even the Star-chamber court of Impeachment, that Johnson's motives in removing Stanton, were based upon the purest and loftiest patriotism. Butler, and his co-Managers, afterward examined Gen. Sherman in private, but they discovered that a cross-examination of the General, would only damage their "case" still more seriously. So they were fain to dismiss "Tecumseh" without any cross-questions whatever. It is said that Sherman told the Managers, during their private interview with him, that Impeachment was a great blunder and would be the death of the Radical party, no matter how it might result. After such testimony as that of General Sherman, we dare the conspirators to carry out their dastard scheme to remove the President. Let them do it, and the people will see the great wrong, in all its shameful significance, and rise up as one man to rebuke and right it!

THE FLAG INSULTED.

Our readers, doubtless, remember that, some months ago, it was announced that SERGEANT BATES, of Wisconsin, in order to test the feelings of the people of the South, would undertake to carry the Stars and Stripes, in a tour on foot, from Vicksburg to Washington. A Radical neighbor of his agreed to pay a dollar per day to his family for every day he was absent in the performance of his trip. The gallant Sergeant proceeded to Vicksburg, and with his flag unfurled, started on his journey. He passed through cities and towns, through swamp and forest, through brake and wilderness, all alone, unarmed, and dependent upon the charity of the people for his daily bread. Every where he was received with the most joyful demonstrations. He was crowned with garlands, his flag was wreathed with flowers, and his very pathway softened with floral offerings. The generous heart of the South leaped out to meet him and give him welcome. Here was the Flag of the Union, borne by one who had fought against the Southern people; here was the impersonation of the victory of the North; was there a single hand raised to lower that flag so proudly floating? was there a single word spoken to insult the noble standard-bearer? Not one! But wherever the Soldier of the Union went with his flag, his line of march was made the scene of an ovation. Strong men wept for joy as they beheld this pledge of Northern confidence in Southern honor; the matrons blessed God for this token of renewed friendship between a dissevered people, and the very school-girls left their studies to deck the flag with Southern roses and to strew the path of him who bore it, with Southern lilies. In this triumphal way, Sergeant Bates at last reached Washington. It was given out that on the day of his arrival he would place the flag upon the dome of the Capitol. Accordingly, escorted by a large concourse of citizens, he proceeded to the Capitol gate. But here his journey ended! Here he was met by the hired Hessians of the Rump Congress, who forbade his entrance! The Soldier of the Union, bearing the Flag of his Country, was refused admission to the Federal Capitol, and he was compelled to fall back upon the Washington Monument and unfurl his banner from that neglected and unfinished pile! So, too, some day, must the American people fall back upon the principles of Washington, and unfurl their flag from the neglected and despised fabric of the Constitution.

THE LEGISLATIVE NUISANCE.

The State Legislature adjourned on Tuesday, 14th inst. A more corrupt and infamous body, (the Rump Congress at Washington alone excepted) never assembled anywhere. It surpassed in corruption and infamy, even the Legislature of last year, and everybody knows that was bad enough. The Pittsburg Commercial, a Radical paper, thus speaks of this legislative nuisance:

"The Legislature of Pennsylvania adjourned yesterday. It is probable that the terms employed to express the general appreciation of the character and acts of its immediate predecessors will adequately express all that the departing bodies deserve from the public.—It was some time ago in the session that the public began to feel in regard to the acts proposed and passed—or pretended to be passed—and the proceedings in general, very much as a community sometimes comes to feel in regard to the ravages of a pestilence, after the first terror has worn off. When the pestilence has ceased, in the general thankfulness, the public mind becomes almost careless as to how many or who have died. So in regard to the Legislature, how many and what laws have been passed, is measurably lost sight of in view of the fact that the members have actually dispersed.

Let us pause to say, that the Legislature has given us a Registry Law, a kind of General Railroad Law, one or two wholesome laws concerning taxation and retrenchment, and perhaps some other good ones; but when we consider that between ten and twelve hundred laws have been spawned upon the State, that in regard to some of the laws there is no difference of opinion that they were bought through, while the defeat of others was equally purchased, all those that we can praise sink into insignificance. And we hasten, too, to express the belief that notwithstanding the general conviction as to the shamelessness and extent of the corruption in the Legislature, some members there are above suspicion. The pure gold is never suspected, the counterfeit only betrays its baseness.

And yet the people are expected to return the same class of men as members of the next Legislature. Is it not about time to have a change?

THE Radicals voted down Negro Suffrage in Ohio, Minnesota, and Kansas, last fall, and the other day defeated it in Michigan by 25,000; but at the same time they force it upon the people of the South, at the point of the bayonet. Great God! what consistency!

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Palmetto State is "reconstructed." The registry of voters in South Carolina shows that there are 40,000 more Negroes registered than White Men. Of course, the Negroes being in so large a majority, the State was carried for the Reconstruction "Constitution" and the Radical ticket. Wherever the Negroes are largely in the ascendancy, the Radicals are successful, but no where else. Think of the State of Marion, Moultrie and Horry, ruled by Negroes! The Lieutenant Governor elected on the Radical Ticket is as black as jet. How do you like such doings, Republicans of Bedford county?

THE Bedford Inquirer, through the aid of the Franklin Repository, has at last discovered who is the elector on the Radical ticket for this Congressional district. He is John Stewart of Chambersburg. The Repository says, "he is one of the ablest campaigners in this section of the State." No doubt of it whatever. He stumped Franklin county, last fall, in favor of negro suffrage, (the principal plank in the Radical platform) and succeeded in giving the county to the Democrats by nearly 200 majority. We hope Mr. Stewart will give us some of his stumping up this way.

THE Radicals of South Carolina have just elected a Negro to one of the principal State Offices. They would do the same in Pennsylvania, if they dared.

THE REGISTRY LAW.—We have received the following suggestive letter from a friend in Napier tp., on the subject of the infamous Registry Act, just passed by the Legislature, and we have only space, now, to say that his conclusions as to the effect of the law, are generally correct. We will publish it entire, in our next issue, when our friend can answer his questions from the text itself.

NAPIER TP., April 14, 1868.

EDITOR GAZETTE.—By reading the GAZETTE of last week, I observe an editorial article headed, "A blow at Foreign born Citizens and the Laboring Classes." From that article I understand "that the Assessor is required to register only such as he knows to be voters; those whom he does not know to be voters, must call upon him in person, if they desire to be registered" Now, the question is, where will you find one man in any township, in this county, that knows every voter in the township? There are many men in this township, I doubt not, who are unknown to the Assessor, and if such should call upon the Assessor in person, then I suppose they must have a witness to accompany them in order that he may know them, or else they cannot be registered at all. But this is not the worst feature that I see. I would wish you to tell us how the election boards are to do in this case. In many townships the Assessor is seldom seen more than two or three times at the polls, on election day, and if he has this registry list in his pocket, how are the election officers to know who are, or who are not, to vote, unless the Assessor would give every voter a certificate to produce to the election board, to satisfy them that he is regularly registered? For, I presume, the election board dare not receive any ticket without first examining the list of registered names, to see whether the voter's name is there or not. And if his name is not there, then, of course, he is deprived of his vote, no matter how long he may have been a voter in the township; but he must be deprived of his vote, because the Assessor does not know him. This is worse than the "Skedaddler Act" of two years ago. There is a law, I believe, with regard to Assessors attending election polls, but I have never seen it fulfilled in but one election district in my life.—The law expressly says: "It shall be the duty of said Assessors, respectively, to attend at the place of holding every general, special, or township election, during the whole time said election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judge, when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them, to vote at such elections, or such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters, as the said inspectors or judge, or either of them, shall from time to time require," &c. Now, if this law is still in force, I presume it will have a tendency, under the new act, to make the assessors more punctual in performing their duty, otherwise the election boards will be in a bad situation. Some light for the people upon this subject, is earnestly desired. READER.

PORTRAIT OF SIR WALTER SCOTT.—Messrs. Appleton & Co., who have just begun the issue, in an exceedingly cheap, but very neat style, of the ever famous Waverly Novels, have sent us a handsome impression of a Portrait of Sir Walter Scott, engraved on steel, from the celebrated painting of Sir Walter Lawrence. This Portrait the Messrs. Appleton are presenting as a premium to subscribers to the full set of their new edition of Scott's Novels, which have already been advertised and announced in our columns. The portrait and the Books can be examined at our office, where subsriptions will be received.

HIGH COURT OF IMPEACHMENT.

Mr. Conness' motion, that hereafter the Court shall open at eleven o'clock, was agreed to. Mr. Ferry then moved that the Senate, by vote, order the omission from the record of the trial of the tabular statements which appear in the Globe as part of Mr. Butler's speech of yesterday, the same not having been read or put in evidence. Mr. Butler attempted to explain, but the explanation amounted to but little, and the motion was adopted without division. William W. Armstrong, editor of the Cleveland Plaindealer, was called by the defense, and testified in regard to the President's speech at Cleveland. Barton Abel, Collector of Internal Revenue at St. Louis, George Knapp, one of the proprietors of the St. Louis Republican, and George S. Zider, a short-hand reporter, were called in succession, and examined concerning the President's St. Louis speech. The reporter testified to having compared the reports as published in the St. Louis Republican and St. Louis Democrat, and made memoranda of about sixty differences. Mr. Curtis next offered in evidence the commission of George Washington, as General of the Army, issued by President John Adams, to show the form of commission issued at that time. Frederick W. Seward was sworn, and detailed the manner of appointing consuls, and filling vacancies in case of death or removal. Secretary Welles was examined, and testified that his attention having been called to the movement of troops in General Emory's district, he spoke to the President about the matter, and in consequence the President said that he would send for General Emory and ask an explanation. He was next asked to give a conversation which he had held with the President concerning Stanton's removal. Mr. Butler objected. Pending the decision the Court took a recess of fifteen minutes. After the recess, the question was argued, and finally admitted—yeas 26, nays 23. The witness then gave the conversation at a Cabinet meeting on February 21, when the removal of Mr. Stanton was announced by the President. He was next examined in reference to the proceedings of a Cabinet meeting held shortly after the passage of the tenure-of-office act, in which meeting the veto of the bill was decided upon. After a few questions, Mr. Butler, as usual, objected, and the remainder of the session was occupied in debate. Without action, at the request of the managers, the Court adjourned.

THE May number of the NORTHERN MONTHLY is certainly not behind its predecessors in the spirit and variety of its contents. First on the roll stands "The Greenback ra," by Gen. Francis A. Walker, now managing editor of the Springfield Republican. It is a vivid and luminous picture of the mercantile and social influence of our paper currency, written in an exceedingly popular style and full of admirable illustrations from the stock-market, and the home circle. Next comes "The Thief in the Night," which still holds its terrible interest, and evinces that unfailing command of the magnificence of our language, which has given Mrs. Prescott her national fame. "Easter Day at Rome," by Dr. Robison, is peculiarly interesting just now, at least to those of the communion which recognizes this festal day." Richard Sayles' "A Huguenot Family is a painfully interesting war sketch. "The Proper Use of Stimulants and Narcotics," by Dr. Beard, is an article which we predict will excite a very warm discussion. It advocates the use of wine, whiskey, tobacco, opium etc., and is very trenchant in its treatment of the temperance theory. The NORTHERN prints the article without endorsing it. "The Red Knight" is a piquant and exquisite chess story. "Concerning Excentric People," by Mr. Manson, is a gossippy paper, full of anecdote and pleasant moralizations.—Next we have a translation of Victor Hugo's "Claude Gueux," one of the earliest writings of that great author, which has already passed out of print in France, and now for the first time appears in English dress. It is notable as containing the germ of Jean Valjean, the great character in "Les Miserables." "The National Debt" is an able discussion of whether bonds are payable in gold or greenbacks. It is reported to have been written by an eminent New York financier. In the Editorial Department we find the usual sparkling variety. Altogether, the NORTHERN commences its second year superbly. Address NORTHERN MONTHLY, 132 Nassau st., New York.

THE LADY'S FRIEND FOR MAY.—A very beautiful steel engraving—"Marguerite Going to Church," with Faust and Mephistopheles in the background, leads off the May number of the "Queen of the Monthlies." This charming engraving of itself many will consider worth the price of the number. Then there is a magnificent colored steel fashion plate, which all the ladies will admire. "Summer Time," another engraving, makes one wish that summer days were here. The Music for this month is called the "Belles of Georgia Waltz." Then there are numerous engravings of the Fashions—Toilettes, Embroidery, Coiffures, &c. Among the literary contents, we note "Evangeline in Prose," by Miss Muzzy; "Ecce Homo," with an illustration; "A Dead Man's Rule," by Elizabeth Prescott; "Until Death," a new poem, by Florence Percy; "Going to Housekeeping," by Aunt Alice; Edith's Pilgrimage," by Nettie Carlisle; an article on Violets, Fashionable Novelties (Illustrated), Editorials, The Fashions, &c. Price (with engraving) $2,50 a year. Address Deacon & Peterson, 329 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

REASONS WHY.

We are enabled to offer superior inducements to purchasers of clothing, to which your attention is respectfully invited.

We have a business experience of more than 25 years, have been longer established than any house in our trade in Philadelphia.

We employ sufficient capital to make ALL PURCHASES FOR CASH, which, together with the fact that our large business enables us to buy in large amounts in first hands, thereby saving all profits of jobbers and middlemen, give us advantages in purchasing at the lowest rates, SHARED BY NO HOUSE IN OUR TRADE.

We sell only for cash and having no losses from bad debts to provide for, the paying customer is not TAXED TO HELP PAY THE DEBT OF ANOTHER who does not pay, as is inevitably the case in a business where credit is given.

We employ the best talent in all departments, which, with long experience, enable us to manufacture garments SUPERIOR IN EVERY RESPECT—equalled by few—surpassed by none.

We have the largest establishment for the manufacture and sale of clothing in Philadelphia, extending through from 518 Market street to 511 Minor street, occupied exclusively by ourselves, also a branch store at 600 Broadway, New York, and keep at all times of

MEN'S, YOUTH'S and BOYS' READY-MADE CLOTHING, the largest stock and best assortment in the city, from which any person can be accurately fitted at once, as well, or better, than by garments made to order, our large stock comprising every size of all styles of goods. We have recently added to our previous stock a full assortment of CHILDREN'S GARIBALDI AND OTHER SUITS, equal to any in the city in style, trimming, and make; which are sold at lower prices than have hitherto been known in Philadelphia. They, with all our Boys' and Youth's goods, are kept on the first floor, nearest the front, convenient for ladies. We have also recently opened on our SECOND FLOOR A CUSTOM DEPARTMENT for the display of a choice selection of Foreign and Domestic Fabrics in the piece, which will be MADE UP TO ORDER, in the best style, by competent and skillful cutters and workmen. The advantage of dealing with a CASH HOUSE will be especially apparent in this department, upon a comparison of prices.

We guarantee our prices lower than the lowest elsewhere and also guarantee full satisfaction to every purchaser, and request, that should any cause of dissatisfaction exist with a purchase made, it may be reported to us, pledging ourselves, by exchange, refunding of money, or otherwise, to give full satisfaction in every case. (Samples and prices sent by mail when desired.)

An examination of our stock respectfully requested and your patronage, if the above statement of facts be satisfactorily demonstrated.

THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENT ASSOCIATION.—There are a great many flatulent people in all communities, who are always doing the "wind-work" of some project, or other, but who expect others to be the hewers of wood and drawers of water when the real work comes to be done. It is an easy matter to hold a public meeting, appoint officers and committees, and then rest upon the laurels gained in making a speech or offering a resolution. This is generally the Alpha and the Omega of our "railroad meetings," and it is about the whole history of the effort to erect a monument to the Soldier Dead of Bedford county. Mark you, we do not say that the officers and committees appointed by the public meeting which started this project, did not do all that could be reasonably expected from them. The Chairman and Treasurer, and the committee for this borough, we know, did what they could to obtain contributions. But nine of every ten who were loud in their praises of the "noble object," &c., when it was first spoken of, and who were instrumental in calling public attention to it, forgot the next day after the public meeting, that it was a part of their business to push the matter. They had helped to do the "wind-work," and they concluded that that was their share. It is a shame that the praiseworthy purpose of the Soldiers' Monument Association, has not been accomplished, but its want of success is owing neither to the inactivity of the officers, nor the parsimony of the people. The secret of its failure lies in the fact that there are too many "wind-bags" and too few workers. We call attention to the communication of Dr. C. N. Hickok, of this place, Chairman of the Association, which will be found in another column, from which it appears that the sum of $54.40 was paid into the Treasury, and that, too, by the "disloyal" districts of St. Clair and Saxton.

NEW MODE OF COLLECTING THE TAXES.—We call attention to the Act of Assembly published on the first page, relative to the collection of taxes in this county. It will be seen that the old system of collectors for the several districts, is abolished, and it is made the duty of the County Treasurer to make the collections. We have not the space to comment upon the peculiar features of this enactment, but refer our readers to the act itself, the scope and tenor of which are easily understood. It is similar to the law in force in Franklin and Fulton, the citizens of which counties are well satisfied with their trial of the system. We think it will save the county a considerable sum in percentages on collections, as the Treasurer is allowed only one third of the percentage allowed to collectors under the old system. It will also greatly lighten the taxes of those who make prompt payment, and will expedite the collection. At any rate, it is worthy of a fair trial.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The friends of Temperance will hold a public meeting in the Court House, on Wednesday evening, the 29th of April, (Court week.) The meeting will be addressed by a number of persons. The ladies of Bedford Lodge of Good Templars will entertain the audience, at intervals, with choice vocal music. The public, and especially all friends of Temperance, are invited to attend.

We have been requested to add to the above, that the Hon. John Cessna, Chairman of the Committee appointed by the State Temperance Convention of last year, to draft a Prohibitory Liquor Law and urge its passage by the Legislature, is expected to be present at the meeting, for the purpose of giving his reasons for not drafting such a law, and for his failure to press the subject upon the consideration of the Legislature. Turn out and hear Mr. Cessna.

WE call the attention to the advertisement in another column of Messrs. Baily, Farrel & Co., of Pittsburg. The firm mentioned are doing a large and extensive business in the manufacture and sale of Water, Gas and Steam Goods of every description. Their factory is at Nos. 20 and 22 Strawberry and warehouse and office at No. 167 Smithfield street. The machinery used by this firm is of the latest and most improved kind, many machines being covered by patents, and taken altogether, is well calculated for turning out goods of superior quality. Messrs. B., F. & Co. have on hand over one hundred different varieties and styles of pumps, ranging from a small cistern or farm pump to steam pumps of mammoth proportions. Their stock of fittings for iron, gas, and water pipes is the largest in the western country, consisting of over five hundred different patterns, while their stock of brass cocks and valves for plumbers and machinists' use cannot be excelled. By the use of superior machinery, Messrs. B., F. & Co. are prepared to fill orders for lead pipe of any length required, all in one piece, so that farmers and others can lay lead pipe without the assistance of a mechanic.

Messrs. B., F. & Co. are energetic and reliable business men, and we would recommend parties interested in water, gas or steam goods to correspond with them.

Soldiers' Monument.

BEDFORD, April 16, 1868.

H. NICODEMUS, ESQ., Sec'y and Treasurer of Bedford co. Soldiers' Monument Association:

DEAR SIR:—Will you please state, for the information of the public, what monies have been paid into the Treasury of the Association?

Yours Truly,
C. N. HICKOK, Ch'n.

BEDFORD, April 16, 1868.

DR. C. N. HICKOK, chairman, Bedford co. Soldiers' Monument Association:

DEAR SIR:—There have come into my hands, for the Monument Association, as follows:

From Henry F. Smith, one of the Executive Committee of St. Clair tp.,	$33 50
From C. S. Faxon, Esq., and Capt. L. B. Waltz, Ex. Com. of Liberty tp.,	20 90
Total,	$54 40

The above is all I have any knowledge of, as collected in the county, for the building of a Soldiers' Monument. The amount from St. Clair tp., I have paid back to Mr. Smith, and I hold the contribution from Liberty tp., ready to be returned to any one authorized to receive it, as it is evident, from the poor responses made to the repeated efforts of the Central Committee, that the "Monument" is not to be built.

Very Truly Yours,
H. NICODEMUS, Treas.

MESSRS EDITORS:—The above correspondence will explain itself, and I respectfully request that you will publish it, not only as due to the community at large, but, also, that wrongful impressions, the result of misstatements, may thus be corrected.

My attention was called to an editorial article, that appeared in the "Bedford County Press," of week before last (the third one, I understand, from Bloody Run, on the same subject, although I did not see the others,) conveying the impression that, "from negligence" the monument has not been built, and "not owing to the want of means, for," continues that paper, "so far as we can understand, these were supplied."

The "Press" being yet in its infancy, it would be too much, perhaps, to look for a mature understanding in that quarter; yet, it should be apparent, even to a very juvenile comprehension, that the sum of $54.40, would go but a small way toward the erection of a memorial, to which many thousands would be but a poor tribute, and the lowest possible estimate of the cost of which, was $5,000.

The "Press" perpetrated a most cruel, though perhaps unconscious sarcasm, on Bedford county's appreciation of the value of the lives and sufferings of its heroic dead, when it "intimated that sufficient means have been secured to erect THE MONUMENT."

The Central Committee were long ago forced to the conclusion, so truthfully and tersely expressed by the Treasurer of the fund, that there is, on the part of the people of this county, a general indisposition to leave standing, for the contemplation of future generations, any memento of their gratitude to those who so freely offered their lives on the altar of their country.

With the exception, perhaps, of some "widows' mite," I do not suppose there has been a single individual subscription in the county, that could, by any process of distortion, be made to appear as "liberality;" but, if the citizens of Bloody Run, or any other portion of our county, have "subscribed liberally and paid two years ago for a monument," as the Press says they have, their donations have never yet found their way into the Treasury of the Association, nor have the Central Committee heard of them.

I have given the Treasurer's statement of the amount received here, and if any monies have been paid to either of the various Borough or Township committees, which have not been reported here, they should, at once, be returned to the donors, as the project for which they were given, has, of necessity, been abandoned.

It will give me pleasure to forward to any one desiring the information, the names of these several committees, so that money "subscribed and paid for this purpose," may be claimed by those having given it.

Any person in the county so "exceedingly anxious to know if the money is to be appropriated as they were made to believe," as the Press asserts there are, could long ago have had this statement of the truth, by application to any one of the Central Committee.

C. N. HICKOK, Ch'n.
Bedford, April 20, 1868.

No loss can be more fatal to beauty, especially in the female sex, than the loss of the hair; glossy, luxuriant hair is one of the most powerful of all personal charms. When baldness or even a deficiency of hair exists, we naturally look for a dry and wrinkled skin, a faded complexion; when not actually seen, we see them in imagination. Why, then, not cultivate your hair? Encourage it and strengthen it; or if your hair is grey or white, the natural color can be restored by a few applications of Mrs. S. A ALLEN'S improved (new style) Hair restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle.) Price one Dollar. Every Druggist sells it.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS.—We have placed our books and accounts in the hands of John P. Reed, Esq., of this place, for collection. All accounts for subscription for the year ending August 1, 1868, remaining unpaid, are included in the bills which Mr. Reed is authorized to collect. We have been compelled to resort to this course in order to obtain a settlement of our accounts. We have too much to do to attend to making out bills, and we are tired of dunning. Money we must have, as we have many debts to pay, and we desire to act honestly with our creditors. Therefore, we ask all to pay Mr. Reed, who can, and those who cannot, we ask to call and settle. If there is any thing in their accounts by which they consider themselves aggrieved, let them call on us, and we will make all right that is not right. Friends, let us have the old scores wiped out, and begin anew.

PHALON AND THE POPE.—Three new Italian belles were baptized by the Pope, a short time ago—thousands of American belles are self baptized every day, with PHALONS "FLOR DE MAYO," the new perfume for the handkerchief. Sold by all the druggists.

THE REGULATOR.—There is a great rush to the Regulator, No. 2, Anderson's Row. Boots and Shoes, latest and best styles, Glassware and Queensware, Notions, etc., are going off rapidly. Now is the time to call. Delays are dangerous. IRVINE will not live or keep store forever.

A FIXED FACT—That Berkstressers' Clothing and Hat Emporium is the place to be suited in all the "latest styles," which overtops everything.

TRUSSES.—"Seeley's Hard Rubber Truss" Cures Rupture, retains the most difficult safely and easily; never rusts, breaks, moves or soils; always new. Sold by all Druggists. Send for pamphlet, 1347 Chestnut Street. Phil'a.

AGENTS WANTED. $75 to $200 per month, everywhere, male and female, to introduce the GENUINE IMPROVED COMMON SENSE FAMILY SEWING MACHINE. This machine will stich, hem, fell, tuck, quilt, cord, bind, braid and embroider in a most superior manner. Price only $18. Fully warranted for five years. We will pay $1000 for any machine that will sew a stronger, more beautiful, or more elastic seam than ours. It makes the "Elastic Lock Stitch." Every second stich can be cut, and still the cloth cannot be pulled apart without tearing it. We pay Agents from $75 to $200 per month and expenses, or a commission from which twice that amount can be made. Address SECOMB & CO., PITTSBURGH, PA., or BOSTON, MASS.
Caution.—Do not be imposed upon by other parties palming off worthless cast-iron machines, under the same name or otherwise. Ours is the only genuine and really practical cheap machine manufactured.

$250 per month guaranteed to agents everywhere selling our Patent Everlasting Metalic Clothesline. Write for Circulars to the American Wire Co., 162 Broadway, N. Y., or 16 St., Chicago, Ill.

HOWE AND STEVEN'S FAMILY DYE COLORS. Thirty Different Shades, all in liquid form. The same shades, all in powder form. We advise the use of the Blacks, Browns and Drabs, in the powder form. For sale by all Druggists and Dealers, and at the Manufactory, Boston, Mass.

RED JACKET AXE.
COLBURN'S PATENT—July 9, 1867.
Tried and not found Wanting.
We claim it will cut Twenty-Five (25) per cent. more cord wood per day than any other Axe made.
McKEESPORT, DEC. 19, 1867.
MESSRS. LIPPINCOTT & CO.
SIRS:—I have fully tried your Patent Axe and find that it is all that you claim for it. It will chop faster than any other Axe that I ever saw, and leaves the wood without sticking at all. I would not chop three days without one for the cost. I need not say any more, for any man that tries one will be satisfied. WM. KEES.

CAUTION!—The Axe and the Label are both patented. Infringers on these patents will be prosecuted according to law.—Venders or dealers, and persons using any infringement, are liable with the maker of the infringement.
For sale by all Dealers and the Manufacturers,

WE ARE STILL MAKING A COMPLETE
REVOLUTION
IN TRADE.
and selling every description of Dry And Fancy Goods, Plated Ware, Jewelry, Watches, Sewing Machines, &c., for the uniform price of ONE DOLLAR.
We would impress upon our patrons that our Stock is not composed of second-hand Goods or Pawn Brokers' unredeemed Stock, but Goods carefully selected direct from American and European Manufactories, the greater portion of which are MANUFACTURED EXCLUSIVELY FOR US, which fact enables us to offer our customers better Goods for the money than those who profess to be "Manufacturers' Agents," or than CAN BE OBTAINED IN ANY OTHER WAY.
The unparalleled increase of our business, and the endorsement of prominent business men and the press in general, is a convincing proof that we have adopted the fairest and most popular system ever placed before the public. We are the first who have attempted to make a "Revolution in Trade," by enabling the public to procure goods in small quantities at manufacturers' prices, thus saving the consumer three large profits made in passing through the hands of the Commission Merchants, the Wholesaler, and Retailer.
Send Clubs of ten or more, with 10 cts. for each descriptive check, and the getter up of the club will receive a present worth $3 to $300, according to number sent.
☞SEND FOR OUR NEW CIRCULAR.
We have also made arrangements with the GREAT ORIENTAL TEA CO.,
of Boston, so that we can furnish our customers With other Goods and a full line of Teas at precisely the same terms to Agents as though dealing directly with the company, thus giving an opportunity of selecting from the various grades any quality they may desire. We also pay agents the same commissions as allowed by the Company. Blank form of order, with price-list and "The Tea Cup," sent to any address. PARKER & CO., Nos. 64 & 66 Federal St., Boston.

PROSPECTUS
1868. "THE AGE," 1868
"THE AGE."
A Democratic Daily and Weekly Journal in Philadelphia.
The attention of the Democrats and Conservative-citizens of the country is called to the Daily and Weekly issues of this widely circulated journal. The dissemination of sound political doctrines should command the earnest attention of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution. The events of the past political year are full of significance. The uprising of The People in opposition to the destructive policy of Radicalism, clearly shows that the masses are determined to restore again to power the great Democratic party, every page of whose history is filled with the glory and prosperity of our common country. No more effectual method for presenting the Truth can be devised, than in circulating Democratic journals. It is the intention of the Proprietors of The Age to make it, in every way worthy of the support and confidence that have heretofore been extended to it. Improvements are contemplated in every department, and no pains or expense will be spared to keep it in the front rank of American journalism.
The Daily Age contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotation, Marine and Commercial Intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters, and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance. Besides Special Telegrams, it has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and also the Associated Press dispatches received by the Atlantic Cable; and the news from all parts of Europe brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from whatever point the steamer first touches.
The Weekly Age will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorials from the Daily, will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It will be in all respects a first-class family journal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Farmer, the Merchant, the Family Circle, and the General Reader, having, in fact, every characteristic of a live newspaper. At an early day will be begun an intensely interesting serial, by one of the most popular and fascinating authors, and it is also the intention to publish, from week to week, in the course of the year, three or four of the best and latest novels.
Terms of the Daily.—One copy, one year, $9.00; six months, $5.00; three months, $2.50; for any less period, at the rate of one Dollar per month. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Daily, thirty cents per quarter, or one dollar and twenty cents per annum, to be prepaid at the office of delivery.
Terms of the Weekly.—One copy, one year, $2; five copies, one year, $9; ten copies one year, $17-50; twenty copies one year, $33. To clubs, where the papers are sent to one address, the following reduction will be made: Five copies, one year, $8.50, Ten copies, 1 year, $16.50; Twenty copies, one year, $30. A copy will be furnished gratis for each club of ten, or more, to one address, for one year. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Weekly, five cents, per quarter, or twenty cents per annum, to be prepaid at the office of delivery
The above terms will be rigidly adhered to. Drafts on Philadelphia, or Postoffice Orders, payable to the order of the Publishers, being safer, are preferable to any other mode of remittance. All who send money by Express, must pre-pay Express charges. Specimen copies of the Daily and Weekly sent gratis, on application at this office. Advertisements inserted at moderate rates. Address WELSH & ROBB, 430 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. jan24w4.

ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.
The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.

☞Send for descriptive circular and price list.
The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON, Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class.—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cotttge Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.
Persons wishing to purchase an organ are requested to examine the Estey instruments now in use at the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches, Bedford, Pa. jul26,'67

COMPOUND BLOOD SEARCHER
This very valuable medicine, which is purely vegetable, has done wonders. It is a never-failing remedy for cleansing the blood. When the blood is pure, disease cannot take hold of the system. I could produce testimonials in regard to what it has effected, but I submit it to the public, guaranteeing that if used according to directions, the result will be GOOD HEALTH. It is my own manufacture.
This medicine will cure Consumption, Dispepsia, Sore Throat, and nine out of ten of all other diseases.
DIRECTIONS FOR USING.—For adults, dose, two tablespoonsfull, three times a day, before meals. Less on the dose according to constitution.

628 HOOP SKIRTS. 628
WM. T. HOPKIN'S "OWN MAKE"
"KEYSTONE SKIRTS,"
are the best and Cheapest Low Priced Hoop Skirts in the market. Trail Skirts, 25 springs, $1.00; 30 springs, $1.20; and 40 springs, $1 45. Plain Skirts, 6 tapes, 20 springs, 86 Cents; 25 springs, 95 Cents; 30 springs, $1 15; and 35 springs, $1.-25. Warranted in every respect.
"Our Own Make" of "UNION SKIRTS," Eleven Tape Trails, from 20 to 50 springs, $1.20 to $2-50. Plain, Six Tapes 20 to 50 springs, from 95 Cents to $2 00. These Skirts are better than those sold by other establishments as first class goods, and at much lower prices.
"Our Own Make of "CHAMPION SKIRTS" are in every way superior to all other Hoop Skirts before the public, and only have to be examined or worn to convince every one of the fact. Manufactured of the best linen-finished English Steel Springs, very superior tapes, and the style of the metalic fastenings and manner of securing them surpass for durability and excellence any other Skirt in this country, and are lighter, more elastic, will wear longer, give more satisfaction, and are really cheaper than all others. Every lady should try them. They are being sold extensively by Merchants throughout this and the adjoining States at very moderate prices. If you want the best, ask for "Hopkin's Champion Skirt." If you do not find them, get the merchant with whom you deal to order them for you, or come or send direct to us. Merchants will find our different grades of Skirts exactly what they need, and we especially invite them to call and examine our extensive assortment, or send for Wholesale Price List.
To be had at Retail at Manufactory, and of the Retail Trade generally, and at Wholesale of the Manufacturer only, to whom all orders should be addressed. MANUFACTORY and SALESROOM, 728 Arch Street, Between 6th and 7th Sts., Pa.

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.
He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical cure of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, resulting from self-Indulgence or Sexual extravagance, &c.—By ROB J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the "Green Book, &c.
The world-renowned author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of Self-Abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. THIS LECTURE WILL PROVE A BOON TO THOUSANDS AND THOUSANDS.

1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requsite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
EDITIONS.
The WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York ARGUS has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.
1. Its Market Reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge Live Stock Markets; the New York Country Produce and General Produce Markets; special and valuable Hop Intelligence; a department of Agricultural Intelligence; all together composing an unrivalled handbook of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, Country Merchant, &c.
2. A page or more reserved for entertaining Fireside Reading for the Family circle, embracing the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc., and a page for the Discussion of all Pr
